The Association may be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by not less than eighty percent (80%) of the Members. Upon dissolution of the Association, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, after all of its liabilities and obligations have been discharged or adequate provisions made therefore, the assets of the Association may be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which this Association was created, or such assets may be granted, conveyed and assigned to any nonprofit corporation, association, trust or other organization to be used for purposes similar to those for which this Association was created, or be distributed as provided by the North Carolina Planned Community Act.

ARTICLE X
AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended as provided in Section 5.1A of the North Carolina General Statutes.

ARTICLE XI
TAX STATUS

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Association hereby elects tax-exempt status under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any corresponding sections or provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law (the "Code"). This Association shall not carry on any activities prohibited by a corporation electing tax-exempt status under Section 528. It is further provided that no distributions of income of the Association are to be made to members, directors or officers of the Association, except that members of the Association may receive a rebate of any excess dues and assessments previously paid to the extent permitted by the Code and applicable law.

ARTICLE XII INDEMNIFICATION

Subject to and consistent with the requirements and procedures for such indemnification under the applicable provisions of the North Carolina Statutes, the Association shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or contemplated action, suit or proceeding (other than action by or in the right of the Association), whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, employee, officer, committee member, Member or agent of the Association, from and against any and all liabilities, expenses (including attorneys' and paralegals' fees and for all stages prior to and in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding, including all appellate proceedings), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement as long as actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the alleged conduct was unlawful, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duty to the Association, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceedings by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, or itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
